Tuesday—13.2.90

Today while praying the rosary with Fr. James, and while we were on the 4th mystery, the carrying of the Cross, I suddenly went into a sort of rapture, I lost my voice and I had to whisper.

and every word I pronounced came out of me with great difficulty, I found myself in the Passion sharing Jesus' sufferings; while in the 5th mystery, the Crucifixion, I seemed to go slowly out of it again. When it was over I felt heavy and my speach and movements were slower than usual, my spirit still under His agony. Jesus?

I am, dearest soul, My agony is great, let Me share it with you; make My Heaven in you, bless Me, Love loves you, peace upon you, look at Me ... are you willing to go through My Passion? are you willing to sacrifice more?

I'm willing to do Your Will. then I and you shall share greater things; Vassula, eat little today and tomorrow fast strictly, please Me

Friday 16.2.90

Early in the afternoon fr. James and I knelt in front of my small altar to pray the rosary, the sorrowful mysteries. As soon as we started the sorrowful mystery of Gethsemane, I had great difficulty to pronounce the words, I found myself unable to utter any word, and it seemed like my spirit went again into a sort of rapture and in this way I entered Jesus' agonies in Gethsemane; I was in this way till the last 'Hail Mary'. Then when fr. James, who went on anyway, started the 2nd mystery, the scourging, I found myself violently thrown on the rug, prostrated, and my arms slightly above my head.
I went through the scourging. My body shook violently every time the 'whip' fell on me. For this first time our Holy Mother was preparing me for every mystery. And thus, I went through the whole Passion till the Crucifixion, going through the agonies and sufferings of Jesus. I had no physical pains, all pains were interior.
